Buying food

un litro

2•23 Berta and Antonio are making a list of groceries. Can you tick off the items as you hear them? Which item do they forget to write?

una botella de vino tinto un litro de agua mineral medio litro de aceite de oliva un Kilo de azúcar cien gramos de jamón medio Kilo de gueso un paquete de manteguilla una lata de sardinas

un paquete de a packet of mantequilla butter una lata de a tin of una barra de pan a stick of bread

2•24 Listen to these key phrases.

Me da .../Póngame ... ¿Algo más? Nada más.

Could you give me ... Anything else? That's all.

2°25 Berta meets her neighbour, Félix, doing his shopping. What quantities of cheese and ham does he ask for? How does he ask for a tin of atún tuna?

... and shopping in the market

4	2.26 Listen as Berta buys her fruta y verdura fruit and vegetables in the market. How much of each of the following does she buy?
	peaches	bananas	onions

En España ...

fruit and vegetables are usually bought by the kilo or half kilo rather than by the unit, except for large fruit such as el melón melon, la sandía watermelon and la piña pineapple.

2°27 Félix is also in the market. Listen and make a note in Spanish of the items he asks for.

Póngame _____. ¡Ah! Y me da _____.

How does the stall holder ask if he wants anything else? What does Félix reply?

- How would you ask for the following?
 - a kilo of cheese
 - a kilo of apples
 - a bottle of red wine
 - a tin of tomatoes
- 200 grams of ham
- a litre of olive oil
- a bread stick
- a packet of coffee